- 2.2. Bonum may deliver Goods in instalments and perform Services in sections in any sequence. Default by Bonum, howsoever caused, in respect of one or more instalments and/or sections shall not entitle the Buyer to terminate the relevant Contract as a whole.

- 2.4 Upon delivery to the Buyer, all Goods should be examined. BONUM shall not be liable for any shortages in, damage to or non-delivery of Goods unless the same is notified by the Buyer to BONUM (together with all specific details) in writing within 10 days of the actual or anticipated date of delivery (as relevant). Subject to such notice being provided BONUM shall, if it is satisfied that any Goods have not been delivered and the cause thereof being beyond the reasonable control of BONUM, at its sole discretion, either arrange for delivery as soon as reasonably possible or give credit to the Buyer for such Goods and this shall be the Buyer's only remedy and in lieu of all other rights and remedies which might otherwise be available to the Buyer. Shortages in, or non-delivery of some or part of the Goods shall not affect the Contract in respect of the other or other parts of the Goods.

- 2.5 If the contractual delivery time for the Work or part of the Work is delayed and this delay was caused by negligence or intention of Bonum and if the Buyer has suffered a loss caused by such delay, the Buyer shall be entitled to liquidated damages for delay. Such liquidated damages for delay shall amount to maximum 0.5% of the Contract price of the delayed part of the Work concerned per each full week of delay considering a grace period of 2 (two) weeks. The liquidated damages for delay will be limited to a maximum of 5% (five per cent) of the Contract price of the delayed part of the Work.
- 2.6 Liquidated damages shall be Buyer's sole and exclusive measure of damages and remedy against BONUM with respect to the failure to achieve the contractual delivery time for the Work.

3. OWNERSHIP

Unless Bonum has been paid in full in advance, the Work will be considered as having been made with Bonum retaining the ownership until full payment has been effected by the Buyer under all contracts between Bonum and the Buyer. If the Buyer does not pay when due, Bonum is entitled to take back the Goods without a court judgment in accordance with the applicable law at the expenses of the Buyer.
